

KILL DEVIL HILL

REX BROWN-BASS

One of the baddest metal bassist around, he is most famous as the longtime bassist for the Grammy nominated, platinum selling band Pantera. He provided the bottom end thunder to the band, live and on record. Since the 1990 release of Pantera's "Cowboys From Hell", Rex Brown has had a hand in multiple gold, platinum, and #1 records. Aside from headlining world tours spanning a decade, Pantera has shared the stage with the likes of Kiss, Judas Priest, and Black Sabbath. In 2002, Rex joined Down for the release of Down II, and subsequent U.S. tours including headlining the second stage of Ozzfest. In 2003, Rex joined Crowbar in the studio to record and help produce "Lifesblood for the Downtrodden." Down went into the studio and in 2006 and recorded DOWN III. The release of Down III was preceded by a tour with Heaven & Hell and Megadeth. To further support their album, Down headlined a tour starting at the end of September 2007. Rex is currently endorsed by Spector basses and Ampeg amplification.

VINNY APPICE-DRUMS

Has powered the rhythm live and in the studio with the bands DIO, BLACK SABBATH, HEAVEN AND HELL, OZZY OSBURN, WWIII, AXIS, RICK DERRINGER, and at age 16 performed with JOHN LENNON. Vinny has recorded and co-written songs on over 25 albums and CDs many which are multi-platinum records. Touring the world for over 2 decades resulted in playing before countless fans and selling millions of records! His drumming can also be heard on numerous movie soundtracks and DVD's including "Wayne's World 2, Heavy Metal, Iron Eagle and Bedazzled." Vinny, the author of drum instruction book "Rock Steady" and DVD "Hard Rock Drumming Techniques" has performed incredible drum clinics around the globe. Numerous books have been written about Black Sabbath and Dio with the authors always mentioning his unique powerful drumming style and has become a part of rock history! Vinny can be seen in the just released (2010) "Heaven And Hell Live in Europe" DVD and can be heard on the new "Dio At Donington" CD.

MARK ZAVON-GUITAR

After appearing in Guitar Player magazine's "Spotlight" column and receiving acclaim from other players for a unique style and approach. In the '90's Mark recorded with the band Scream Parade for Shrapnel Records. He went on to record and tour with vocalist Stephen Percy of Ratt, and later was asked to play numerous dates as the guitarist for Ratt. Mark also played in legendary band WASP, and recorded and performed live shows with metal band WWIII featuring Mandy Lion

DEWEY BRAGG -VOCALS

Dewey Bragg vocals combines an eerie resemblance to the late Alice in Chains vocalist Layne Staley with his own powerful melodic choruses fronting the band with powerful conviction. The rest is unknown

.....